

SOCIETY

E. CATHERINE MOORE—Phone 340

Mrs. M. S. Hargraves was the gracious hostess to a number of her lady friends on Monday evening of this week. The informal hours were enjoyed and a delicate lunch was a fitting feature of the event.

Mrs. J. G. Beck will entertain the Degree of Honor this afternoon at her home on West 3rd street. Beside the usual business session, a social time will be enjoyed and refreshments will close the afternoon hours.

The Woman's Benefit Association of the Maccahees will have their kennington at the home of Mrs. F. W. Haargarten, 908 Box Butte avenue, Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Mesdames B. J. Mullane and Haargarten will be the hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Martin entertained the Sixteen Club at their home Wednesday evening. A large number of the members were present and enjoyed the games and social hours. Delicious refreshments were served the company.

Mrs. Jerry Rowan entertained a number of friends at her home Tuesday evening. She has a large and spacious basement and the young folks enjoyed a social dancing party, after which the hostess served delicious refreshments.

Mrs. Roy Wilson was hostess to the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church Wednesday afternoon. Not a large attendance, but the ones who were present truly enjoyed the hours, and the refreshments were of the best kind.

The Woman's Guild of the Episcopal church met at the Parish house Wednesday afternoon and enjoyed a very pleasant afternoon with Mesdames Harris and Tillett as hostesses. Next Wednesday will be Ash

Wednesday and a special program has been planned for the afternoon. The Guild will meet then as usual at the Parish house and an urgent invitation is extended to all to be there.

Mrs. L. S. Smith pleasantly entertained a number of friends of Mrs. Reck, who has been here for a visit with her daughter, Dietlein, on Thursday afternoon of last week. A kennington was enjoyed and a delicate lunch was served. The list of invited friends of the former resident were Mesdames Renswold, Hills, Bean, Hurst, Gambol, Keeler and Dietlein.

Mrs. H. W. Hull was hostess to the Baptist ladies Wednesday afternoon at her new home on Toluca avenue. The beautiful new bungalow recently built by Mr. and Mrs. Hull is now fitted out and the owners have recently moved in and are enjoying the home. Mrs. Hull thought this a suitable occasion to entertain some of her lady friends, and the latter surely appreciated the opportunity of "house warming" the delightful quarters.

A box social is to be held at the Reed school house Friday evening, March 3, to which a cordial invitation is extended by the teacher, Miss Bye. A program has been arranged and we are sure that the distance will not keep a large number from attending, as the school house is only two miles east of Alliance. The proceeds are to go towards furniture for the school house, and a good patronage should be extended.

Master Arthur Lunn entertained about twenty of his little boy and girl friends Tuesday afternoon, the occasion being his eighth birthday, and from reports we learn that the young folks heartily enjoyed the anniversary of their favorite. After some pleasant hours at the home, all adjourned to the parlors in Thiele's drug store, and there were served with appropriate and delicious refreshments. The little friends remembered Arthur with many useful and beautiful gifts, to remind him of the occasion.

The ladies of the Eastern Star chapter report a successful evening Tuesday night, when they held their "parcel post" sale of hand made articles. Over one hundred dollars was cleared and the social time was enjoyed. A good crowd attended, and W. O. Barnes proved himself an efficient auctioneer. The articles in packages sold well and brought a just remuneration, while the refreshments which could be obtained at a fair cost went like "hot cakes" and all heartily expressed their appreciation of the good time and at the same time the ladies felt the affair well worth their efforts.

Rev. and Mrs. J. B. Carns were agreeably surprised at the Methodist parsonage when a company of people numbering about forty, consisting of members of the Ladies' Aid society and families, assembled and went in for a pleasant evening with their pastor and wife. The self-invited guests had laid arrangements for the entertainment and were cordially welcomed by the surprised ones. A "church trial" held the attention of those in attendance for several hours. As previously arranged, Rev. Haislip was judge of the court, and Mrs. Sharp, police matron, was sheriff. The prosecuting attorney was William Lunn, and attorney for defense was C. A. Dow. Jury consisted of Rev. Carns, Mrs. Pate, Mrs. Acheson, Mr. Drake and Mrs. Watson. Numerous witnesses were called and tended to make the mock affair very interesting. The prisoner at the bar was Mrs. Gregory, who is president of the Ladies' Aid. She was brought into court by Sheriff Sharp on a charge of embezzlement brought against the society, it being charged that she or some of the other officers had taken money under false pretenses. Mrs. Pate, who is an officer of the Aid, was finally implicated on a charge of taking money from her husband while he slept. After the jury had discussed the question before the house they contended that Mrs. Pate had a right to the money, and in no way was guilty of the acquisition. Mr. Carns, as foreman of the jury, finally succeeded in clearing the suspect and the prisoner. The affair surely furnished amusement, and was the life of the evening.

The M. E. Aid were entertained at the home of Mrs. A. P. Brown yesterday afternoon. The refreshments were delicious and a fairly good attendance is reported at the meeting.

Mrs. A. Renswold was hostess to a number of lady friends in compliment to Mrs. Reck, last Friday afternoon. The hours were spent in an informal manner, and refreshments were served near the close. The list of guests included Mesdames Barnes, Fernald, Smith, Dietlein, Willis.

Saturday night the neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Bates in the McCorkle block surprised them with an entertainment in honor of Mrs. Bates' mother and sister, Mrs. A. McKenna and Miss Fern McKenna, of Boise, Idaho, who are visiting them here. They enjoyed a pleasant evening.

Mrs. Rowan will entertain the Woman's Federated Club Friday afternoon and the subject will be "American Travel". Roll call will be responded to with current events. Mrs. Slagle will give information of "Glacier Park"; Mrs. Reed will give a talk on "Crater Lake" and Mrs. Rhein will give vocal selections. This meeting will doubtless be one of the most interesting as a study of the "home country" should always arouse more intrinsic feelings and awaken new enthusiasm for one's own country.

The boys belonging to the basket ball teams of the Methodist Sunday school, with their friends, were entertained last Saturday evening at the home of Carl Thomas, the team manager. A five-course dinner was served at 7 o'clock, after which games of various kinds were indulged in. The boys who were members of the teams were as follows: Floyd Lotspeich, Howard Lotspeich, Howard Rider, Henry Rider, Ray Edwards, Warren Lotspeich, George Vandervoort, William Lunn, Victor Martin, Sam Graham, Artie Osborne, Wade Grassman and Elmo Calder.

DRINK MORE WATER IF KIDNEYS BOTHER

Eat less meat and take Salts for Back-ache or Bladder trouble—Neutralizes acids.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush off the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad. Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness. Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.
